(vi) Material events in accordance with the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (“The Listing Regulations”)

ii. “Generally available information” means information that is accessible to the public on a non-discriminatory basis.

iii. Material Information as specified under the Listing Regulations:

Material information means any information relating to the business or affairs of the Company that results in, or would reasonably be expected to result in a significant change in the market price or value of the securities of the Company or that would reasonably be expected to have a significant influence on any reasonable investor's investment decisions. Material Information inter alia, includes all the information as provided in the Annexure II-A, Annexure II-B and further also includes other events specified in Annexure-III of Policy for Disclosure of Material Events or Information and Disclosure & Determination of Materiality of Events or Information, as approved by the Board of Directors of the Company, uploaded on the website of the Company.

For the purpose of this Code, all the above information including unpublished price sensitive information would be referred to as “Material Information”

3. Basic Principles of Disclosures:

Procedures governing the disclosure of Material Information required to be disclosed shall provide that such disclosure shall be made in accordance with the following principles:

- A. Information should be disclosed immediately through the stock exchanges.
- B. Under certain circumstances, the Company may determine that such disclosure would be unduly detrimental to the Company (for example if release of the information would cause prejudice to negotiations in a corporate transaction), in which case, the information shall be kept confidential until the Company determines it may be publicly disclosed. Information should be disclosed only after there is credibility to the information and the information has concretized.
- C. Disclosures should be made in a timely manner.
- D. Disclosure must be complete in all material respects and should not be misleading.
- E. Unfavorable Material Information must be disclosed as promptly and completely as favorable information.
- F. Disclosure must be corrected immediately if the Company is subsequently made aware that its earlier disclosure contained a material error or omission at the time it was given.

4. Disclosure of Material Information:

The Company shall disclose Material Information concerning its business and affairs to the public immediately, except when otherwise required for the purpose of maintaining the confidentiality of the information. This Code is to enable all persons investing in the securities of the Company to have the opportunity for equal and timely access to information that may affect their investment decisions regarding those securities.

This Code further provides that, once there is credibility to the information and once the information is reached to a level of concretization, the information would be disclosed by the Company in a timely manner.

5. Process of Disclosures of Material Information:

In case any Functional Head becomes aware of some Material Information about the Company, the said Functional Head would contact the Compliance Officer or Managing Director of the Company.

The Compliance officer and/or Managing Director would then determine whether the information requires disclosure to the stock exchanges or not in accordance with the Listing Agreements. Thereafter, concerned functional head will prepare the content of the disclosure and determine the timing of the disclosures. Thereafter, the Company will disclose the said information to the stock exchanges.

The Company shall make prompt public disclosure of UPSI of concrete and credible nature to make it generally available information. However, no such public disclosure of information on need to be made by the Company under the SEBI(PIT) Regulations with regard to the ideas or proposals or potential transactions at preliminary or nascent stage pertaining to the following matters:
